

EDITORS NOW SEEK FOR THEO. C. GROSS.

il Recently He Was Rated High as a Wine Merchant.

ffs Striving to Execute Attempts on Property That Is All Tied Up.

ring Charges in Connection with His Accounts as Treasurer of a Realty Company.

SAPEARED WITH HIS WIFE.

Have Converted Everything into Including Car Loads of Malt Which Were Lighted at Night.

Business affairs of Theodore C. Gross, until a few weeks ago had rating as a wine merchant and have ended in what now seems to be ruin. Mr. Gross's place of business at No. 73 West Houston street, which he had converted into a warehouse for car loads of malt, was lighted at night.

Business affairs of Theodore C. Gross, until a few weeks ago had rating as a wine merchant and have ended in what now seems to be ruin. Mr. Gross's place of business at No. 73 West Houston street, which he had converted into a warehouse for car loads of malt, was lighted at night.

Business affairs of Theodore C. Gross, until a few weeks ago had rating as a wine merchant and have ended in what now seems to be ruin. Mr. Gross's place of business at No. 73 West Houston street, which he had converted into a warehouse for car loads of malt, was lighted at night.

It is said that Gross recently received $30,000 cash; that he borrowed $12,000 on warehouse receipts for malt which he had purchased on notes, and that he also collected $6,000 in September rents due to the Otis Realty Company, of which he was treasurer. It is also said that he recently received a building loan of $17,500 on the premises in process of construction at Nos. 342 and 344 West Fifty-sixth street, while he only paid out $7,000 on that account. He is likewise said to have had a certified check for $7,000 on the Standard Bank which he was trying to get cashed. He bought diamonds of Hamann & Koch, hidden in a jewelry box, to the amount of $940, and they took in payment a bill of sale of the fixtures at No. 73 West Houston street. He is also said to have sold the saloon run in connection with his wholesale business at No. 73 West Houston street for $400, and to have assigned accounts worth $6,000, and wines worth $7,000, to a friend.

Bradstreet's took away Gross's rating ten weeks ago, and since then inquiries from many cities have poured in. He had been in business less than two years, but always claimed to be sole agent for the Union Brewing Company, of Rochester; the Taylor Brewing and Malt Company, of Albany; and treasurer of the Worcester Brewing Company, of Worcester, Mass. Four car loads of malt are said to have been consigned to Gross on Thursday, and to have been immediately sold. The old and small boat at the foot of West Thirty-third street and towed away. Bradstreet's took away Gross's rating ten weeks ago, and since then inquiries from many cities have poured in. He had been in business less than two years, but always claimed to be sole agent for the Union Brewing Company, of Rochester; the Taylor Brewing and Malt Company, of Albany; and treasurer of the Worcester Brewing Company, of Worcester, Mass. Four car loads of malt are said to have been consigned to Gross on Thursday, and to have been immediately sold. The old and small boat at the foot of West Thirty-third street and towed away.

Twisted A Dog's Tail. Redford's Five-Cent Mongrel Then Bit Emma Barscheck.

Little Emma Barscheck, the four-year-old daughter of August Barscheck, who lives at No. 1003 First avenue, tried the doubtful experiment of twisting the tail of a dog last night. The dog was old and irritable. He turned around, sprang at the little girl, scratched her right cheek, and bit her over the left eye. The dog was then shot by Police Officer Samuel Grimaldi, of the East Fifty-seventh Street Station.

Van Buren-West. Newburg, N. Y., Sept. 18.—The wedding of Miss Helen Lewis West, of New Windsor, and Edmund Martin Van Buren, of New York City, will take place at St. Thomas' Church, New Windsor, on October 1. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis West, whose summer home at Aspeton is one of the finest on the river. The groom is the son of Arthur Van Buren, a grandson of General Van Buren, and at one time State Engineer. There will be a large number of guests. The bride's party will sail for the Mediterranean on October 3. Their return home they will make by the Washington Square, New York. The wedding will be a grand social event.

Danbury Trying to Get Bryan. Danbury, Conn., Sept. 18.—The managers of the Democratic campaign in Fairfield county are trying to secure the presence of William J. Bryan at the Danbury fair, which takes place the first week of October. The Republicans and the Democrats have united in a call for Mr. Bryan to speak in opposition to Mr. Bryan. The Socialists will invite their Presidential candidate, W. J. Mahan, to speak. The fair managers are gleeful over the plan, as they anticipate that it would attract thousands to their show.

Sommers Makes Ten Bulls' Eyes. North Tonawanda, N. Y., Sept. 18.—Cornelius W. J. Sommers, of the Twenty-fifth Street Company, made ten vitreous bulls' eyes in succession from the 700 and 800-yard mark during the Fourth Brigade expert shoot to-day. This feat was achieved on the first of the two-day range, but was not broken in Western New York.

RAISED FATHER'S CHECKS.

Young Salinsky Changed Hundreds into Thousands to Spend on Women and in Gambling.

Moses Salinsky, eighteen years old, of No. 142 Division street, was arrested last night, charged with falsifying checks for $1,000, a glass manufacturer, of No. 28 Howard street, with raising checks. Salinsky discovered about ten days ago that his son, who was his bookkeeper, had been raising $100 checks to $1,000. Just before this discovery his son disappeared. Four days ago the elder Salinsky reported the matter to Acting Captain Hogan, of the Ludlow Street Station, and Detective Neill and Hammond were put on the case. Last night they arrested the young man in the Palm Athletic Club, on the Bowery. He made a confession, and said that he had squandered the money on women and gambling. His forgeries will reach about $7,000. He had $35 in his pockets when arrested.

SHE IS DETERMINED TO DIE.

Declares, After Attempting Suicide, That She Will Kill Herself, If It Takes a Week.

"I'll kill myself if it takes a week. I can't live myself with my husband," said Mrs. Joseph Neelmann, forty-three years old, of No. 310 Main street, Union Hill, N. J., last night, after she had been pronounced out of danger by Dr. White, who had squandered the money on women and gambling. His forgeries will reach about $7,000. He had $35 in his pockets when arrested.

Results at Windsor.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 18.—The races at Windsor to-day resulted as follows: First Race—Purse $200; five furlongs and a half. Winner, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Second, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Third, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Fourth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Fifth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Sixth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Seventh, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Eighth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Ninth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Tenth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1.

Entries at Windsor.

First Race—Three-quarters of a mile—Tippecanoe, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Second, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Third, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Fourth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Fifth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Sixth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Seventh, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Eighth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Ninth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Tenth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1.

Entries at Oakley.

First Race—Five furlongs. Winner, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Second, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Third, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Fourth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Fifth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Sixth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Seventh, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Eighth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Ninth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Tenth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1.

Course and Paddock.

Mr. J. M. Crosby, of Boston, will sell the entire stable of jumpers and steeplechasers next Tuesday. Mr. Crosby has recently acquired a large number of horses, and has determined for the season to sell them. The horses are of various breeds, and are of high quality. The sale will take place at the New York Hotel, on Broadway. The horses are of various breeds, and are of high quality. The sale will take place at the New York Hotel, on Broadway.

Anna Held at Home.

"The intimacy of the boudoir at last! The atmosphere is freighted with the scent of pink roses. In an armchair, manuring her fingers, sits Mlle. Anna Held. She is very much en negligé. She is attired in—oh! how can I ever say it?—how can I say it?—a nightie, fussy with laces and gawgaws."

SEE SUNDAY'S JOURNAL.

STORY AND NAME WERE BOTH FALSE.

Man Known as Charles Palmer Admits He Was Not Assaulted in Central Park.

Was Once Known as Joseph Tebbutt, and Was Connected with a Religious Society.

DISAPPEARED UNDER A CLOUD.

Secured His Position at St. Luke's Hospital on the Recommendation of a Prominent Citizen—Had Been in an Inebriate's Home.

There was a partial unravelling yesterday of the mystery with which the so-called Charles Palmer surrounded the circumstances under which he received the story that still confine him to a bed in St. Luke's Hospital. Despite his persistence in the tale, it was proved that his story of being waylaid and assaulted by a highwayman in Central Park was absolute fiction. In the face of proofs he retracted much of his original allegations, but he still persisted in his amended story of the assault.

It was established yesterday that the injured man's name is not Charles Palmer, but Joseph Tebbutt, or at least that he was known by the latter name previous to the time when he was believed to be Palmer.

The facsimile of the man's handwriting that was published in Thursday's Journal contributed to the establishing of his identity. His penmanship was recognized by a person who had been associated with him about two years ago in a religious society known as the Good Samaritans, connected with the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, at Eighty-second street and Park avenue.

The record of this church is the Rev. W. Everett Johnson, whom Palmer desired to have notified in case his illness took a dangerous turn. Speaking of the alleged victim of a Central Park highwayman, the Journal's informant said:

"Palmer's right name is Joseph Tebbutt. He is an Englishman, who has resided in this city for years. He and George Davidson, who was at that time sexton of the Church of the Redeemer, established the Good Samaritan Society, and Tebbutt was active in church work. He disappeared last year, and his former acquaintances lost all track of him. Father Johnson is able, but, perhaps, will be unwilling, to tell you all about the cause of Tebbutt's disappearance. The police are likely to know considerable about the man. He may have been trying to lead an honest life lately, and it would be a pity to injure him on the strength of what he has been."

Father Johnson when seen absolutely refused to tell what he knew about the man. He identified a photograph of him as a man he used to know, and admitted that the time he was known as Joseph Tebbutt.

The same photograph was shown to the captain of the Third Precinct, and to his special officers, but they declared that they recognized neither the man's face nor name. The injured man was still in a grave condition at the hospital yesterday. Rev. Dr. George S. Baker, superintendent of St. Luke's, stated that the man had been in the hospital since the day he was brought there. He asked him a number of questions, to which Palmer replied in writing, declaring he was unable to speak.

Later in the day Police Captain Devery with two of his detectives, and the Captain of the Third Precinct, and the doctor, went to the hospital to see the man. They found him in a grave condition, and they declared that they recognized neither the man's face nor name.

The injured man was still in a grave condition at the hospital yesterday. Rev. Dr. George S. Baker, superintendent of St. Luke's, stated that the man had been in the hospital since the day he was brought there. He asked him a number of questions, to which Palmer replied in writing, declaring he was unable to speak.

NEW PERIL DUE TO GAS.

Finds Unusual Place of Storage in an Apartment House and Ruins a Dinner.

A peculiar explosion occurred in the apartment of Isaac Mann, who lives on the fourth floor of the fashionable apartment house at No. 100 West End street, and on Saturday night, while the family were at dinner last night. A leak in the gas pipe filled the space between the stone wall of the building and a thin lath wall that holds the plastering. This gas became ignited when a servant lighted a wall burner in the dining room and there was a loud explosion.

Fragments of plaster shot out, ruining the dinner and covering the occupants of the room with white lime. The thin wall was torn away leaving only the upright timbers, with broken laths clinging here and there.

After the explosion the wood caught fire and threatened a serious blaze. An alarm was sent in and the fire was extinguished. The damage done altogether will amount to about $100.

Betty Green's Son Sees Hanna.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—H. R. Green, Betty Green's son, who is the leader of the United Republican party organization in Texas, headed a delegation from that State, which called on Chairman Hanna to-day.

Paralyzed on the Street.

George P. Davenport, sixty-eight years of age, a newspaper man of Columbus, O., was taken to the Columbus Hospital yesterday suffering with paralysis of the legs and crumpling. He has been staying at the Cosmopolitan Hotel for several days. He was taken to the Columbus Hospital yesterday. He was taken to the Columbus Hospital yesterday.

Killed by a Marble Slab.

Rudolph Hessig, fifty-one years of age, of No. 5 Lewis street, was riding on a truck loaded with marble yesterday, when at Forty-eighth street and First avenue it slipped and fell. The truck was overturned, and Hessig was killed. The truck was overturned, and Hessig was killed.

Supposed Escaped Lunatic Captured.

Detective Donovan, of Newark, last night arrested a man who, he thinks, is William Hayes, who shot and killed Policeman Jewell at Rahway about two years ago. Hayes was arrested at the New York Hotel, on Broadway. He was arrested at the New York Hotel, on Broadway.

At the Starboard Gangway.

The Pentagon Corinthian Yacht Club, of Bay Shore, L. I., will have a review of the fleet of the club on Saturday, Sept. 20. The review will take place at the Starboard Gangway. The review will take place at the Starboard Gangway.

"BILL THE BRUTE" IS FREE.

Captain Moynihan at Last Convinced That He Could Not Have Robbed Young Hilderbrandt—Has a Long Criminal Record.

William Steison, alias "Bill the Brute," who was arrested in company with "Big Ed," since he was found guilty of robbing the Clyde Line, has been arrested and released twice in the last four days. When he was locked up in Police Headquarters Tuesday, Captain O'Brien thought he might have been the accomplice of William Rooney, alias "Daiton," who held up and robbed Collector Hilderbrandt last week.

After Captain O'Brien's men had hunted up his record and deluged for the past few weeks with the fact that Steison was innocent of any connection with the robbery, and allowed him to go. Captain Moynihan, of the East One Hundred and Fourth Street Station, who last week could not tell the Police Commissioners on which side of the station house his desk was located, immediately re-arrested Steison on the same charge. The Captain had Hilderbrandt take a look at the prisoner yesterday, since he was found guilty of robbing the Clyde Line, has been arrested and released twice in the last four days.

The Chief of the Detective Bureau then visited the East One Hundred and Fourth Street Station and proved to Captain Moynihan that Steison had been in the Newark (N. J.) Jail from September 8 to 10, 1895. The Chief of the Bureau then visited the East One Hundred and Fourth Street Station and proved to Captain Moynihan that Steison had been in the Newark (N. J.) Jail from September 8 to 10, 1895.

He served nine months in the Manhattan House of Correction, as he is called, on account of his force looks, is termed by Captain O'Brien as "a thoroughly American crook." In his prime he was a well-known crook, and he is still a vigorous man for his age.

He was arrested in New York at one time for robbing a man of his pocket watch. Five years ago Detective Sergeant Valery arrested him just as he was returning from a job. He had several thousand dollars' worth of diamonds in his possession at the time. He took Valery for a New York crook.

He was arrested in New York at one time for robbing a man of his pocket watch. Five years ago Detective Sergeant Valery arrested him just as he was returning from a job. He had several thousand dollars' worth of diamonds in his possession at the time. He took Valery for a New York crook.

JOCKEY COUGHLIN RULED OFF.

His Offense a Poor Ride on Baldwin in the Hurdle Race at Oakley.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 18.—The feature of an off-day card at Oakley was the hurdle handicap. It resulted in a driving victory for Uncle Jim, backed from 5 to 1 to 3 to 1. Captain Rees, the favorite, was second.

Coughlin, in the opinion of the officials, was a poor rider. He was ruled off the race. He was ruled off the race. He was ruled off the race.

First Race—Five furlongs—Purse $300—Gaston, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Second, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Third, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Fourth, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Fifth, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Sixth, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Seventh, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Eighth, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Ninth, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Tenth, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1.

Second Race—Four furlongs and a half—Winn, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Second, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Third, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Fourth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Fifth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Sixth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Seventh, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Eighth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Ninth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Tenth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1.

Third Race—Three-quarters of a mile—Tippecanoe, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Second, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Third, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Fourth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Fifth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Sixth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Seventh, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Eighth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Ninth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1. Tenth, 100 (Henderson), 8 to 1.

Fourth Race—Two miles—Purse $500—Gaston, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Second, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Third, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Fourth, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Fifth, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Sixth, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Seventh, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Eighth, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Ninth, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1. Tenth, 110 (Barnes), 2 to 1.

BEGGAR ACCOSTS WOMEN.

Stops Several on Fifth Avenue and Roughly Demands Money from Them.

William Ferris, who gave his address as No. 446 Park avenue, was a prisoner in the Yorkville Police Court yesterday on a charge of begging in the streets. Police Officer Kennedy, of the West Sixty-eighth Street Station, arrested the man at Fifth avenue and Fifty-seventh street, in front of the Vanderbilt residence.

Ferris, a middle-aged man, was asked for money. He refused to give any, and was roughly handled. He was taken to the police station. He was taken to the police station.

Funeral of Commissioner Ford.

The late Fire Commissioner Austin E. Ford, who died at his residence in Fordham after an operation for appendicitis, will be buried in St. Ignace Church, on Monday, Sept. 22.

At 10:30 o'clock a solemn high mass for the repose of his soul will be sung in the Roman Catholic Church at No. 100 West End street, and at 11 o'clock a funeral service will be held at the same place. The Rev. Father Bonner, who will be present at the mass, and a guard of honor and light palbearers, chosen from the Fire Department, will escort the body from the church to the cemetery.

Killed by a Marble Slab.

Rudolph Hessig, fifty-one years of age, of No. 5 Lewis street, was riding on a truck loaded with marble yesterday, when at Forty-eighth street and First avenue it slipped and fell. The truck was overturned, and Hessig was killed. The truck was overturned, and Hessig was killed.

Supposed Escaped Lunatic Captured.

Detective Donovan, of Newark, last night arrested a man who, he thinks, is William Hayes, who shot and killed Policeman Jewell at Rahway about two years ago. Hayes was arrested at the New York Hotel, on Broadway. He was arrested at the New York Hotel, on Broadway.

At the Starboard Gangway.

The Pentagon Corinthian Yacht Club, of Bay Shore, L. I., will have a review of the fleet of the club on Saturday, Sept. 20. The review will take place at the Starboard Gangway. The review will take place at the Starboard Gangway.

Killed by a Marble Slab.

Rudolph Hessig, fifty-one years of age, of No. 5 Lewis street, was riding on a truck loaded with marble yesterday, when at Forty-eighth street and First avenue it slipped and fell. The truck was overturned, and Hessig was killed. The truck was overturned, and Hessig was killed.

Supposed Escaped Lunatic Captured.

Detective Donovan, of Newark, last night arrested a man who, he thinks, is William Hayes, who shot and killed Policeman Jewell at Rahway about two years ago. Hayes was arrested at the New York Hotel, on Broadway. He was arrested at the New York Hotel, on Broadway.

Some of the Good Things for Next Sunday.

When one's cake is dough it is usually attributable to the pig-headed fact that one hasn't the financial dough, as it's called in the vernacular, necessary for the purchase of the cake, even if it be Aurora's chaste medallion, the pancake, which proves that Pan is not dead, because it is composed of the batter that never falls to may a home run when it slides from the home plate on its first value.

But enough of this. To-morrow may be dark and cloudy—it may be, so to speak, a mass of dark clouds—but the Journal will be bright—yes, verily, dearly beloved, it will be a 16 to 1 silver fling of each and every cloud, and it will find clouds enough to line by a large majority.

To begin with, there is a thrilling account of a boy who has been found in a pawnbroker's shop, either. We know how a boy can worry along without a full complement of legs and fingers, or without a mother or a bicycle, but it is necessary to read this article to find out just how he manages to exist without a soul. As the article will appear without fail in the Sunday Journal, it would be superfluous to place of place to reproduce it here, or to give a hint as to whether the boy will develop into a stockbroker or a boarding house keeper.

There are many people in this world who are always anxious to know what is going to happen. They are not uneasy about what has happened, but the future keeps them in a ferment, whether it is a question referring to the eye water outlook in Algiers or to the price of the coal which is in our mind, weighed upon honest scales and separated and apart from the rest of the world. Here is a blossoming horoscope for the month of September, which does with meters, earthquakes, showers of cotton bolls and lost in whiskey in them, tornadoes, strikes and a number of things that are to happen to our people, but the planet Mercury, to ascertain just where these happenings are to occur read the Journal to-morrow, and you will find the great fact of other September attractions purchased at fabulous expense by this enterprising paper.

Read, likewise, of the ranch that has just been started in California for the production of wild animals for the circus. Every man, woman and child who has held him captive, such a man will find vast areas of undisturbed delight in seeing his acquaintance with these wild animals that once filled his soul with joy, whether he saw them behind the glassed windows of a cage or in the open air, and he will find a fund of useful information about these wonderful animals and the world of the beneficent Mother Nature in order that the circus might become a perennial institution.

Anna Held, with the words and music of her only English song, will gladden the hearts of the theatre goers, who will also be delighted to see the picture of her favorite dog, and to learn of the manner in which she received Alan Dale. A portrait of the negro poet, Paul Lawrence Dunbar, recently discovered by Mr. Howell, will satisfy the average African that some of his brothers are capable of higher things than picking the bones from the mouth of a pig. A number of the poems of his forthcoming book are printed, and they glow with gloom and glide along with the music of a shab-down and the stately grace and dignity of a cake walk.

How a newspaper article brought Miss Walsingham, a husband in a timely paper which will be appreciated by all susceptible young women. To know just how the trick is performed see to-morrow's Journal, and you will find the great fact of other September attractions purchased at fabulous expense by this enterprising paper.

Read, likewise, of the ranch that has just been started in California for the production of wild animals for the circus. Every man, woman and child who has held him captive, such a man will find vast areas of undisturbed delight in seeing his acquaintance with these wild animals that once filled his soul with joy, whether he saw them behind the glassed windows of a cage or in the open air, and he will find a fund of useful information about these wonderful animals and the world of the beneficent Mother Nature in order that the circus might become a perennial institution.

Anna Held, with the words and music of her only English song, will gladden the hearts of the theatre goers, who will also be delighted to see the picture of her favorite dog, and to learn of the manner in which she received Alan Dale. A portrait of the negro poet, Paul Lawrence Dunbar, recently discovered by Mr. Howell, will satisfy the average African that some of his brothers are capable of higher things than picking the bones from the mouth of a pig. A number of the poems of his forthcoming book are printed, and they glow with gloom and glide along with the music of a shab-down and the stately grace and dignity of a cake walk.

How a newspaper article brought Miss Walsingham, a husband in a timely paper which will be appreciated by all susceptible young women. To know just how the trick is performed see to-morrow's Journal, and you will find the great fact of other September attractions purchased at fabulous expense by this enterprising paper.

Read, likewise, of the ranch that has just been started in California for the production of wild animals for the circus. Every man, woman and child who has held him captive, such a man will find vast areas of undisturbed delight in seeing his acquaintance with these wild animals that once filled his soul with joy, whether he saw them behind the glassed windows of a cage or in the open air, and he will find a fund of useful information about these wonderful animals and the world of the beneficent Mother Nature in order that the circus might become a perennial institution.

Anna Held, with the words and music of her only English song, will gladden the hearts of the theatre goers, who will also be delighted to see the picture of her favorite dog, and to learn of the manner in which she received Alan Dale. A portrait of the negro poet, Paul Lawrence Dunbar, recently discovered by Mr. Howell, will satisfy the average African that some of his brothers are capable of higher things than picking the bones from the mouth of a pig. A number of the poems of his forthcoming book are printed, and they glow with gloom and glide along with the music of a shab-down and the stately grace and dignity of a cake walk.

How a newspaper article brought Miss Walsingham, a husband in a timely paper which will be appreciated by all susceptible young women. To know just how the trick is performed see to-morrow's Journal, and you will find the great fact of other September attractions purchased at fabulous expense by this enterprising paper.

Read, likewise, of the ranch that has just been started in California for the production of wild animals for the circus. Every man, woman and child who has held him captive, such a man will find vast areas of undisturbed delight in seeing his acquaintance with these wild animals that once filled his soul with joy, whether he saw them behind the glassed windows of a cage or in the open air, and he will find a fund of useful information about these wonderful animals and the world of the beneficent Mother Nature in order that the circus might become a perennial institution.

Anna Held, with the words and music of her only English song, will gladden the hearts of the theatre goers, who will also be delighted to see the picture of her favorite dog, and to learn of the manner in which she received Alan Dale. A portrait of the negro poet, Paul Lawrence Dunbar, recently discovered by Mr. Howell, will satisfy the average African that some of his brothers are capable of higher things than picking the bones from the mouth of a pig. A number of the poems of his forthcoming book are printed, and they glow with gloom and glide along with the music of a shab-down and the stately grace and dignity of a cake walk.

How a newspaper article brought Miss Walsingham, a husband in a timely paper which will be appreciated by all susceptible young women. To know just how the trick is performed see to-morrow's Journal, and you will find the great fact of other September attractions purchased at fabulous expense by this enterprising paper.

Read, likewise, of the ranch that has just been started in California for the production of wild animals for the circus. Every man, woman and child who has held him captive, such a man will find vast areas of undisturbed delight in seeing his acquaintance with these wild animals that once filled his soul with joy, whether he saw them behind the glassed windows of a cage or in the open air, and he will find a fund of useful information about these wonderful animals and the world of the beneficent Mother Nature in order that the circus might become a perennial institution.

Anna Held, with the words and music of her only English song, will gladden the hearts of the theatre goers, who will also be delighted to see the picture of her favorite dog, and to learn of the manner in which she received Alan Dale. A portrait of the negro poet, Paul Lawrence Dunbar, recently discovered by Mr. Howell, will satisfy the average African that some of his brothers are capable of higher things than picking the bones from the mouth of a pig. A number of the poems of his forthcoming book are printed, and they glow with gloom and glide along with the music of a shab-down and the stately grace and dignity of a cake walk.

How a newspaper article brought Miss Walsingham, a husband in a timely paper which will be appreciated by all susceptible young women. To know just how the trick is performed see to-morrow's Journal, and you will find the great fact of other September attractions purchased at fabulous expense by this enterprising paper.

Read, likewise, of the ranch that has just been started in California for the production of wild animals for the circus. Every man, woman and child who has held him captive, such a man will find vast areas of undisturbed delight in seeing his acquaintance with these wild animals that once filled his soul with joy, whether he saw them behind the glassed windows of a cage or in the open air, and he will find a fund of useful information about these wonderful animals and the world of the beneficent Mother Nature in order that the circus might become a perennial institution.

Anna Held, with the words and music of her only English song, will gladden the hearts of the theatre goers, who will also be delighted to see the picture of her favorite dog, and to learn of the manner in which she received Alan Dale. A portrait of the negro poet, Paul Lawrence Dunbar, recently discovered by Mr. Howell, will satisfy the average African that some of his brothers are capable of higher things than picking the bones from the mouth of a pig. A number of the poems of his forthcoming book are printed, and they glow with gloom and glide along with the music of a shab-down and the stately grace and dignity of a cake walk.